DEWAN OF MYSORE

BEAULIEU,
BANGALORE.

5th Feb. 22.

No. 46

My dear Mr. Meiza

We understand that Sir Leslie Wilson has informally enquired if the Amir of Afghanistan would pay a visit to England. We have communicated our opinion that the Amir's visit to England at this moment would be premature and that they felt difficult to submit their advice in the matter. They were also to communicate in this sense to H.E. the Viceroy should occasion arise but that they have no locus standi for passing their views in favour of an outsider.

So, I have not the right to in the name of the [illegible]
to [illegible] which has come out, more than ever.

I also enclose, in original, a letter from Lang. Alexander [illegible] enclosure by which you will [illegible]
the file which I am sending to [illegible]
[illegible] & I shall [illegible]

I am enclosing a Note about the [illegible] changes in the Civil Code obtained [illegible] & considered.

Yours very
